

Securi-T USA Agrees to Acquire PECO Medical, Inc.

The company plans to expand its current offering of ostomy products and accessories to include urological supplies

LARGO, FL – Securi-T USA has agreed to acquire PECO Medical, Inc., designer and developer of continence care products, allowing the company to expand its portfolio of products beyond ostomy care.

“For nearly two decades, providers have relied upon us for high-quality, reimbursement-friendly ostomy products, and they have encouraged us to expand into urological items. We are happy to accomplish this through the planned acquisition of PECO Medical, and we look forward to expanding the existing customer base for PECO products”, says Greg Bosco, President of Securi-T USA. “It is most important that PECO Medical, Inc. customers understand that we will be working closely with the Securi-T USA team to ensure a smooth transition. It will be business as usual for our valued customers, says Michael Jones, President, PECO Medical, Inc.

“Full integration of the two companies will occur behind the scenes to ensure a seamless transition, says Bosco, “and during this integration period, we will encourage our customers to reach out to Securi-T USA customer service or their sales representatives with any questions. Our intention is to make this integration as seamless as possible for all concerned.”
